

Module XIX Internship

Lecturer	Dr. Wardono Niloperbowo
Semester	6
Type of submodule / course	Compulsory
Credits	3
Workload - class lecture (hr/sem)	Internship in related institution or industry approximately 144 work hours.
Workload details	Determined by the institution
Classification within the curriculum:	General Studies / Compulsory Course/ Elective Course
Type of assessment/examination	Internship report
Language	Bahasa Indonesia
Course Target / Outcome	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Able to develop the ability to cooperate and communicate – Able to work independently with minimum supervision to complete that job – Able to recognize and understand the world of work, so they are ready to work when graduated from college – Being able to resolve the issue with knowledge – Being able to systematically describe the activities, problems and the problems solving in a reports – Students are able to apply scientific methods when solving a problem
Teaching methods	Supervision
Contents	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – explanation of the internship – submission internship proposal to the related institution or industry – Internship is carried out during semester break on July-August – Submission internship report
Literature / Sources	Companies and institutions database provided by SITH
Other specialties	